Increasing crimes in Delhi

†2110. SHRI MANGANI LAL MANDAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the details of different kinds of crimes in the last three years, year-wise and State-wise;

(b) whether it is a fact that the incidents of crimes, mainly rape have been increasing by the day in Delhi; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) The State/UT-wise details of various crimes registered under different heads of Indian Penal Code (IPC) and Special & Local Laws (SLL) during 2004—2006, as compiled by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB), are given as Annexure [See Appendix 213, Annexure No. 7].

(b) and (c) As per data compiled by NCRB, a total of 53623, 56065 and 57963 IPC cases and 25136, 26573 and 30372 SLL cases were registered in Delhi during 2004 to 2006 respectively, thereby showing in increasing trend. 551, 658 and 623 cases of rape were registered in Delhi during the same period, thereby showing a mixed trend. However, as informed by the Delhi Police, the total of IPC and SLL cases for the year 2007 were 56065 and 20994 respectively showing a declining trend. According to Delhi Police, there were 598 rape cases in 2007, also showing a decreasing trend.

Amendments to CrPC and IPC to curb organ trafficking

2111. SHRI RAJEEV CHANDRASEKHAR: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government is contemplating any amendments to Cr.PC and IPC to ensure stringent penalties and imprisonment for organ trafficking; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and by when the needful is likely to be done?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI V. RADHIKA SELVI): (a) and (b) Commercial dealing in human organs is a punishable offence under the provisions of the Transplatation of Human Organs Act, 1994. The Appropriate Authorities appointed under the Act are responsible and empowered to check the illegal activities of human organs trafficking. The Act already contains provisions for stringent punishment for the offences of removal of human organs without authority and for commercial dealings in human organs. There is no proposal to amend Cr. PC and IPC in this count.
